About Us

CV Turmexa Global is an Indonesia based export company specializing in high quality spice powders for international markets. With a strong focus on turmeric powder as our flagship product, we leverage Indonesia's rich agricultural resources to deliver products with consistent quality, competitive pricing, and reliable supply.

We work closely with selected suppliers and implement strict quality control to ensure our products meet global standards. In addition to turmeric, we also offer a wide range of Indonesian spices to support the needs of food, herbal, and bulk ingredient industries, while aiming to build long term partnerships through dependable service and customer focused solutions.

Vision

To redefine how the world experiences spices by turning Indonesia's natural richness into consistent, traceable, and high value ingredients that go beyond commodities.

Mission

Our mission is to deliver consistent quality turmeric and Indonesian spice powders to global markets through reliable sourcing, strict quality control, and flexible solutions, while ensuring smooth trade execution and building long term partnerships based on trust and consistency.
